

January 28: Introduction to James

1. How have you thought about the book of James in the past? Does it confuse you, or have you found it helpful in your walk as a Christian?
2. Which parts of James most perplex or confuse you? Are there parts of the book to which you want to give special focus as we begin our study?
3. Have you been taught that James stands in conflict with Paul, particularly to his epistle to the Romans?
4. What is your experience of this epistle in other classes or Christian preaching?
