THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

BCP p. 355

✠ Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heaven-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa-ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo-ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa-ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther; re-ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON

Jonah 3:10-4:11

When God saw what the people of Nineveh did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it. But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the Lord and said, "O Lord! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O Lord, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." And the Lord said, "Is it right for you to be angry?" Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city. The Lord God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live." But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?" And he said, "Yes, angry enough to die." Then the Lord said, "You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 145:1-8 Exaltabo te, Deus

James Turle (1802–1882)

I will magnify thee, O God, my King : and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.

Every day will I give thanks unto thee : and praise thy Name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and marvelous worthy to be praised : there is no end of his greatness.

One generation shall praise thy works unto another : and declare thy power.

As for me, I will be talking of thy worship : thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works;

So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous acts : and I will also tell of thy greatness.

The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed : and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious and merciful : long-suffering and of great goodness.

THE SECOND LESSON

Philippians 1:21-30

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again. Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well—since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The children are invited to join the Children's Procession to the Chapel by following the acolyte with the silver cross.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 20:1-16

The People turn to face the Gospel Book during the Proclamation.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.The People sit when directed by the Preacher.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, ✠ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Form I, BCP p. 383

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying “Lord, have mercy.”

The People kneel.

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the Holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those in our parish with needs, especially ...

For those who serve in the military, especially ...

For our Louisville Fellows ...

For the work of the Anglican Centre in Rome and the Anglican Communion Office in London, and the work of Christian Unity.

For our children and youth celebrating birthdays this week, especially ...

For our brothers and sisters who suffer for the sake of Christ, especially ...

And for our enemies, and those who wish us harm, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

✠ For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

In the communion of Francis and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

All stand.

THE PEACE

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The People sit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

“There’s a wideness in God’s mercy”

Maurice Bevan (1921–2006)

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There’s a kindness in his justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth’s sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth’s failings
Have such kindly judgement given.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man’s mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.

There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all gladness
In the joy of Christ our Lord.

Words: Frederick W. Faber (1814–1863)

PRESENTATION HYMN

All things come of thee, O Lord

setting: Mass in E, Jeffrey Smith

organ

organ

All things come of Thee, O Lord and of Thine own have we given Thee.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The People kneel. The Celebrant continues with the Eucharistic Prayer.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself...

...Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues the prayer.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption... All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

All baptized persons are invited to receive Holy Communion. Our ushers will direct you to the altar rail at the appropriate time. If you are not baptized or do not wish to receive communion, you are invited to come forward for a blessing; you may indicate you are not receiving communion by crossing your arms across your chest. Those desiring baptism are encouraged to speak to one of our priests. During the administration of communion, the people may be seated. For those who wish to have a gluten free wafer, please close your hands and alert the priest when you are at the altar. Those who would like to receive healing prayer are invited to the Chapel after receiving communion. You may enter the Chapel (through the door to the left as you face the altar), and a trained healing prayer minister will pray for you.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

"Steal away"

Spiritual arr. Nicholas White (b. 1967)

Steal away to Jesus.
Steal away home.
I ain't got long to stay here.

My Lord, he calls me,
he calls me by the thunder;
The trumpet sounds within-a-my soul.
I ain't got long to stay here.

Green trees are bendin', poor sinners stand a-tremblin';
The trumpet sounds within-a-my soul.
I ain't got long to stay here.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP p. 365

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and the blessing of God almighty ☩ the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit keep you now and forever. Amen.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

September Book Drive for Veterans Our Military and Veterans Ministry is hosting another book drive on behalf of our veterans! The drive will last the entire month of September. Please drop off any hardback OR paperback books of any topic in the collection basket in the Narthex. Thank you for supporting this offering!

In the Beauty of Holiness: The How and Why of Worship ... Sundays at 10:15 beginning September 20 Have you ever wondered why we do something particular on Sunday mornings? Do you want to learn when to make the sign of the cross, why we kneel, or what the shiny silver bread cup is called? Do you have a prayerbook you don't know how to use? This fall, new and long-time members are invited to learn this and more in "In the Beauty of Holiness: A How and Why of Worship." This class will provide background, answer practical questions, and offer a how-to for those who want to learn more or to get more comfortable in worship. This six-week class begins on September 20, during the Sunday School hour. Register on Realm so we can save you a space! For more information, contact Mthr. Barbara.

Organ Recital and Choral Evensong for the Feast of St. Matthew ... Sunday, September 20, 4:30-6:30 p.m. Join us as we offer our first event in a new initiative called "Commonwealth, Common Prayer," in which the St. Francis Parish Choir partners with sister churches in our diocese to offer Choral Evensong. The 4:30 p.m. organ recital is played by Mengfei Xu, Assistant Director of Worship and Music at Second Presbyterian Church in Louisville, KY. Her program features music of Escaich, S. S. Wesley, J. S. Bach, Karosi, and Farrington. Immediately following the program, the combined choirs of St. Francis and St. Matthew's Episcopal Church offer Choral Evensong. All are encouraged to stay for a simple meal in Graves Hall, where a member of the clergy staff will offer a lecture on the Gospel of St. Matthew. Childcare provided. RSVP and pay for dinner ($10) on Realm!

Coffee and Conversation with the Louisville Fellows ... Tuesday, September 22, 8:30-10:00 a.m. Come meet some of our Louisville Fellows and learn more about who they are, where they are working and serving, and what they are learning! Program leadership will also be available to talk about where we are as a program and where we are headed. This is a come-and-go event located in the Williamson Room, and coffee and donuts will be provided.

24th Annual Mission Driven Car Show ... Saturday, September 26, 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. The 24th Annual Mission Driven Car Show is Saturday, September 26, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. This year we have an anonymous donor who has pledged to match the proceeds of the show! You can sign up on Realm to be a Victory Lane sponsor or sign up in the Narthex at the car show table. We gladly accept donations of door prizes in the $10-$15 range (things any car enthusiast would like) and raffle prizes in the $20-$25 range (more specialized items like tools, detailing sets, folding chairs, etc.--Costco and Harbour Freight are great sources for these kinds of things!). Join in with prayers for great weather, with which we have been blessed since the first year! Terrific food, rock and roll music, and a great family atmosphere: come be a part of this special event!

Just Lunch Ladies' Group ... Thursday, October 1, 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. The ladies of St. Francis are warmly invited to join our Just Lunch group on the first Thursday of each month at 11:30 a.m. Whether you've been at St. Francis for years or are new to the parish, Just Lunch is a relaxed opportunity to enjoy a meal at a local restaurant, share conversation, and build meaningful friendships with women across our church community. No agenda—just good food, good company, and the chance to get to know one another better! Please RSVP to Elizabeth Gillette via phone call or text message at (502) 645-8992 by Monday, September 28.

Dedication of our Habitat for Humanity Build ... Friday, October 2, at 1:00 p.m. Our 2026 build for Habitat for Humanity, undertaken in cooperation with our fellow Episcopal churches, is nearly complete, and will be dedicated on Friday, October 2, at 1:00 p.m. The new homeowner, Marcus Keltee, will be there with his family--and his two sons do not know they are getting a new house! The location is 6510 Lower Hunters Trace. The ceremony will last about 30 minutes and feature a rotation of speakers, including Fr. Clint. All are encouraged to attend and celebrate this monumental achievement, which is helping one of our neighbors reach the major milestone of homeownership and make great gains on the path to financial freedom. Well done to all who worked so hard to support this worthy cause this summer!

Evening Prayer and Blessing of the Animals ... Friday, October 2, at 5:00 p.m. All creatures great and small, and their owners, are invited to a special service of Evening Prayer on Friday, October 2, at 5:00 p.m. We'll be moving our regular Evening Prayer service under the trees in the Back Bowl to pray and bless our animal companions, in observance of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals. All paws, claws, and hooves are welcome to praise God and kick off the celebration of our patronal feast! This service will last about 30 minutes.

Join the St. Francis Singers! ... Sunday, October 4, at 10:00 a.m. Do you love to sing, but don't have the space for weekly choir rehearsal and singing? The St. Francis Singers may be just the opportunity for you. This new choir will come together for three special occasions this fall, offering an anthem at the following services: the 10:00 a.m. service on Sunday, October 4 (the Feast of St. Francis); the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday, November 1 (All Saints Day); and the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday, December 6. One rehearsal before each of these services will take place the Sunday prior from 1:45 to 2:45 pm. No previous choral experience is necessary. If you're interested, please email Dr. Rich (kirkr@sftf.org) to set up a brief vocal interview to determine your range and best placement in the group.

St. Francis Feast Day Potluck ... Sunday, October 4, at 11:30 a.m. Bring a dish, bring an appetite, and bring a friend! Following the 10:00 a.m. service on Sunday, October 4, we'll gather in Graves Hall to celebrate our patronal feast. The parish provides the fried chicken and drinks—you bring the rest. To make sure the table is balanced, we're assigning dishes by the first letter of your last name:

A–L: Sides. Think: hot vegetables, potatoes, mac and cheese, baked beans, dressing, greens, rolls, or cornbread.

M–R: Salads. Green salads, pasta or potato salad, slaw, fruit salad.

S–Z: Desserts. Cakes, pies, cookies, brownies—please slice or portion ahead of time if you can.

Please bring enough to serve 10–12, and label your dish (and your serving spoon!) so it finds its way home. Dishes should be dropped off in the kitchen before the 10:00 a.m. service. Sign up here so we can buy chicken accordingly!

Mahjong Monday ... Monday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m. Please come join us for Mahjong and fellowship! Men, women, beginners, and experienced players are all welcome. We will have multiple tables set up for open play and a teacher on hand to help those still getting familiar with the game. Please bring your 2026 NMJL card (spare cards will be available). Additionally, please bring a set of tiles if you have them. Sign up on Realm today! Guests welcome.

Young Adult Ministry Pumpkins at Kentucky Kingdom ... Friday, October 9, at 6:00 p.m. St. Francis Young Adult Ministry is headed to Kentucky Kingdom, the new site of Louisville's Jack O'Lantern Spectacular, for a fall night out! Check out over 5,000 hand-carved pumpkins, enjoy some fall treats, and ride a few roller coasters (if that's your thing) all while getting to know other young adults in their 20s and 30s. We'll meet at the church at 6:00 p.m. to carpool. Tickets are on us, but we need to know if you're coming. RSVP to Laura at (404) 731-8345 or LauraK@SFITF.org by Friday, October 2.

Rector's Forum: Ruth ... Sundays at 10:15 a.m. beginning October 11 This fall, join the Rector's Forum to study "Ruth: Loyalty, Redemption, and Providence," a six-week exploration of one of Scripture's most beloved stories, starting October 11. Set in a time of upheaval and loss, the book of Ruth follows an unlikely Moabite widow whose radical faithfulness becomes the thread God uses to weave together an extraordinary story of provision and redemption. Whether you are navigating a season of difficulty or simply longing to see God's hand in the ordinary, this study has something for you. All are welcome—no preparation needed to begin.

October Food for Thought: WaterStep and the Power of One ... Thursday, October 15, 11:45 a.m.–1:00 p.m. Food for Thought continues on Thursday, October 15, with Mark Hogg, founder and CEO of WaterStep, a Louisville-based non-profit organization dedicated to providing safe water solutions globally. Since its inception in 1995, WaterStep has transformed from a small service organization into a leader in safe water technology and innovation. Mark will discuss how he built this life-saving organization while impacting 18 million+ people, and why the power of one is so important. Cost is $15, which includes a box lunch from Gracious Plenty. Sign ups are OPEN on Realm, so reserve your spot today!

Daughters of the King Meeting ... Monday, October 19, at 12:00 p.m. The Daughters of the King are meeting on Monday, October 19, in Rooms 201/202. Fellowship will begin at 11:30 a.m., followed by the meeting at 12:00 p.m. Please note the noon meeting time this month.

YOUTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth of St. Francis Weekly Activities Our regular weekly programming includes three Sunday School classes from 10:15 to 11:00 a.m. in the Youth Classrooms, located on the lower floor of the main campus building; and Sunday Night Youth Group, where youth share a meal, pray together, and play games from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Vicarage (the stone building near the HWY 42 entrance). On Wednesday nights, following the 5:45 p.m. parish-wide dinner in Graves Hall, there is Youth Bible Study from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., starting in Graves Hall and ending in the Vicarage.

CHILDREN'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Michaelmas ... Sunday, September 27, 6:00–7:30 p.m. Join us for a joyful celebration of Michaelmas, the Feast of Saint Michael and All Angels, on Sunday, September 27! Children and families will enjoy dinner and activities and will learn more about the angels of Scripture, meet the dragon from Revelation, and discover why the Church celebrates the victory of God's light over darkness. All ages are welcome. Sign-ups are open on Realm!

Blessing of the Stuffed Animals ... Sunday, October 4, at 10:00 a.m. During Children's Chapel on the Feast Day of St. Francis on Sunday, October 4, we will observe our favorite "Blessing of the Stuffed Animals" tradition. Please have your children bring their favorite stuffed animal to church that morning!

Nights in the Fields: Hearts and Hands ... Sunday, October 11, 6:00–7:30 p.m. Hearts and Hands will be a service night in partnership with our pastoral care ministries. Children will pray for, serve, and encourage members of our parish who are sick, grieving, lonely, or walking through difficult circumstances. These evenings will help children learn that they are not simply preparing to become part of the Church's ministry someday. They are already members of the Body of Christ with gifts to offer. All are welcome to join; we ask that children under 5 be accompanied by a parent/adult. Sign up on Realm by Thursday, October 8!

Nights in the Fields: Candlelight and Compline ... Sunday, October 18, 6:00-7:30 p.m. Children are invited to come in their pajamas for a peaceful evening of candlelit dinner, Scripture, and Compline. We will learn the Church's nighttime prayers and practice placing our joys, worries, and whole lives into God's care as the day comes to an end. All ages are welcome, but we ask that children under 5 be accompanied by a parent/adult. Register on Realm by Thursday, October 15!
